Foreword

We, the Senior Class of 1965, turn back the pages of time to present some of our most treasured moments of this school year.

Since the first graduation class many years ago, Seven Springs High School has trained many young men and women to become better citizens of our community and nation.

With our eyes turned toward the future, we, the Class of 1965 proudly present this, the eighteenth, and final edition of THE SESPRISCHOAN.

Dedication . . .

We, the 1965 Seniors of Seven Springs High School, being grateful and appreciative, wish to honor an outstanding group who we think has devoted their utmost time and patience to each of us throughout our twelve years of school. We can never repay them for their efforts and their needed encouragement. May their guiding hands and hearts be an asset to us through our coming years.

With grateful hearts, we the seniors of 1965, dedicate this SESPRISCHOAN to OUR BELOVED PARENTS.

Alma Mater

Your praises high we love to sing,
O Seven Springs
The thought of you to our warm hearts
what fondness brings!
Tho far we wander
Tho many lands we roam
We'll turn to you as loving children
Turn toward home.

We love to honor your dear name,
O Seven Springs High,
We'll e'er delight to spread your fame
To sea and sky.
We love your old walls,
The hill, they crown, we love,
We love your dark majestic pines,
The waving grove.

O Alma Mater, May your life
Through all the years
Be radiant from your torch of Truth
And free from cares.
May God protect you
And all your labors bless
And spare you long for noble works of usefulness.

C u r r i c u l u m

This Family Life course improves our personal and social relationships with other people.

Mr. Williams endeavors to teach the basic concepts of English to freshmen.

Here we study the vocations of life and try to decide what ours may be.

Here we learn that the shortest way is not always the easiest way.

English is the basic cornerstone for our life's endeavors. Without it we could not succeed.

Once we master the keyboard, "practice makes perfect".

Here we study the structure and uses of geometric figures.

We study the development of man through the ages.

We endeavor to perfect ourselves in the arts of home-making.

Here we get a better understanding of our bodies and their processes.

Combustion is the combining of oxygen and another substance but why then won't water ( $H_2O$ ) burn?

Here we learn the basic rules of business mathematics.

Poem

We take this moment here at hand
To be the symbol for which we stand
We've laughed, cried, and studied too
To make this life time dream come true
Our days at Seven Springs are ended now
It's our last good-bye and our last bow
To the underclassmen who have been
Lots of fun and tops as friends
We wish their Senior year to come
So they too can be proud for what they've done
Our parents and teachers... What a help
They've been
They were always there
As counselor and friend.
Their part is almost over and
Ours is just begun
We think of our new path and
The things that are undone
So here it is, our last to you
"Farewell fair school with colors
so true. May health and success
Be yours too."

Poetess

Senior Class History

In September, 1953 a group of mischievous youngsters entered Seven Springs School for the first time. We were all associated with a group of strangers. Our journey through school had begun.

The first eight years passed quickly. There were many exciting trips and many wonderful things that we shall never forget. At the end of these years we were graduated from the elementary grades into high school.

When we returned to school in the fall Mr. Walter L. Creel and Mrs. Imogene Price were our homeroom teachers. We chose these class officers: President - Larry Price, Vice-President - Eleanor Jarman, Secretary - Kitsie Hardy, Treasurer - Becky Carmack, Reporters - Malcolm Price and Judy Ivey.

Basketball seemed to be a big hit with our class. Those from the class that made the team were Becky Carmack, Pamela Price, Kitsie Hardy, Jenny Grady, Edna Whitman, Larry Price, Douglas Hill, Glenn Price, Sidney Phillips, and Malcolm Price. Cheerleaders were Pansy Price and Linda Daly.

Initiation Day was a big day for both girls and boys.

Linda Daly was chosen for the F.F.A. sweetheart and Becky Carmack for a member of the Homecoming Court.

Special awards accorded our class this year included: fashion show winners, Kitsie Hardy, Doris Jones, and Mary Grady; agriculture award, Malcolm Price; scholastic award, Malcolm Price.

We entered our sophomore year with the same group as the previous year. Mr. Walter Creel was again our homeroom teacher. We elected the following officers: President - Malcolm Price, Vice-President - Larry Price, Secretary - Linda Daly, Treasurer - Becky Carmack, Reporters - Tom Kilpatrick and Doris Jones.

Basketball again seemed to be very important to us. Becky Carmack made the cheerleading squad this year. The scorekeeper and manager were Mary Grady and Trudy Price. Kitsie Hardy served as a co-captain for the girls' team.

F.H.A. officers from our class were Linda Daly, Pamela Price, Kitsie Hardy, and Jenny Grady.

F.F.A. officer from our class was Malcolm Price. Linda Daly was again the F.F.A. sweetheart.

Special honors accorded our class this year included: Linda Daly and Tom Kilpatrick, Halloween Royalty; Pamela Price, Mary Grady, and Trudy Price, fashion show winners; Larry Price and Malcolm Price, F.F.A. awards; Kitsie Hardy, athletic award; Malcolm Price, scholastic award.

Our junior year was a busy and successful one. Our homeroom teachers were Mr. Ned Shivar and Mrs. Lou Summerlin. Our class officers were: President - Malcolm Price, Vice-President - Sidney Phillips, Secretary - Pamela Price, Treasurer - Becky Carmack, Reporters - Linda Daly and Mary Grady.

Among the many wonderful events which came off during this year were our Junior-Senior, class play and our Washington-New York trip.

Class members that made Beta Club this year were Judy Ivey, Kitsie Hardy, Mary Martin, Malcolm Price, Douglas Hill, Trudy Price, and Larry Price. We had several members in F.B.L.A. Jenny Grady and Trudy Price were officers.

F.H.A. officers from our class were Pansy Price, Mary Grady, Kitsie Hardy, Pamela Price, and Linda Daly.

F.F.A. officer was Jimmy Garris. Becky Carmack was the F.F.A. sweetheart.

Special honors accorded our class this year were Kitsie Hardy and Sidney Phillips, Halloween Royalty; Malcolm Price, Larry Price, Kitsie Hardy, Douglas Hill, and Mary Martin, Marshals; Kitsie Hardy, homecoming queen; Becky Carmack, Miss Holiday and Miss Wayne County Fair; Jenny Grady and Pamela Price and Sidney Phillips, basketball leaders; Trudy Price, scorekeeper; Larry Price, timekeeper; Linda Daly and Mary Grady, cheerleaders; Pamela Price and Mary Grady, fashion show winners; Glenn Price and Garry Smith, agriculture awards; Pamela Price, athletic award; Larry Price, history, science, and scholastic awards.

In the fall of 1964, we entered Seven Springs High School for our final year. Mrs. Imogene Price was our sponsor. We elected these class officers: President - Malcolm Price, Vice-President - Kitsie Hardy, Secretary - Pamela Price, Treasurer - Becky Carmack, Reporters - Jenny Grady and Tom Kilpatrick.

The arrival of our class rings was a happy occasion for all of us.

Mary Martin won the DAR award.

Homecoming Queen was Pamela Price and her escort was Larry Price.

F.H.A. officers from our class were Kitsie Hardy, Linda Daly, Jenny Grady, and Becky Carmack.

F.F.A. officers from our class were Glenn Price, and Garry Smith, Pamela Price was F.F.A. sweetheart.

Malcolm Price and Sidney Phillips were co-captains of the basketball team.

Finally it was graduation time and even though we had looked forward to this event, we experienced mixed feelings of happiness and sadness. We realized that our school days at Seven Springs were over and we faced the future with high hopes.

Prophecy

As I cruise through Seven Springs for the first time in ten years I really see changes. It has been transformed from a little village to a booming city. I had heard LEROY owned a business and I assume BLIZZARD'S Grocery is it. Across the street from it I waved at EDWARD CARMACK who was busy at his garage. He really has not changed.

I am in front of a large service station and from the name I know it is one of JIMMY GARRIS'S. He has a chain of these in the South. Jimmy directs me to Price's Hotel. My old friend, GLENN PRICE, who is the owner is there to welcome me. While we are reminiscing MALCOLM PRICE, and his new wife come in. He is a successful pharmacist and now has his own drug store.

LINDA DALY, an expert legal secretary, still retains her pleasant countenance which must be really pleasant for her employer, the world renowned lawyer, DOUGLAS HILL.

While driving on through town I see PHILLIPS Furniture Store. SIDNEY is following in his father's footsteps I assume. He is helping KITSIE HARDY put a beautiful lamp into her car. Incidentally, Kitsie has just retired from her Civil Service position to give full time to homemaking in a neighboring community.

Because it is nearly lunch time I decide to stop at SASSER'S Restaurant. EUGENE and his associate, J.B. PRICE must really be chefs for there are many people dining there. Among the familiar faces is MAJOR STRICKLAND. His cattle farm has proved quite profitable.

I go back to the hotel to rest before the reunion that is to be that night. Whom should I see but my old pal from high school days—LARRY PRICE! He told me that his textile mill is doing well. While we are talking JACKIE and JEANNE PRICE come by. They tell us that they too are having a sort of reunion as they've not seen each other in several months. Jackie teaches first grade in an exclusive California school. Jeanne operates a local kindergarten.

EDNA WHITMAN and EDNA GAY GARRIS are doing well in their double roles as secretaries and housewives.

PAMELA PRICE and BECKY CARMACK enter. Both of these girls were smartly dressed and charming. It was easy to tell that they were successful models. They told us that they had just had their hair styled for the reunion by PANSY PRICE who owns and operates her own beauty salon. Pamela and Becky are waiting for MARY WALTON GRADY and JENNY SUE GRADY to come in. These two girls are private secretaries to the President.

I left the hotel and went to SMITH'S Airport. GARRY owns this. He says his two best pilots are brothers, TOMMY KORNEGAY and MILTON KORNEGAY. While we were talking a plane came in and two of my former classmates got off. TRUDY PRICE, who is secretary to her husband, a North Carolina Congressman in Washington, D.C., and MARY ELIZABETH MARTIN, supervising nurse at Stuart Circle Hospital in Richmond, Virginia, are really looking well.

It is time to go to the reunion now. Maybe I shall see the others there.

As I arrive the first couple I see is LINDA and JERRY CARTER. They are still happily married and live in La Grange.

JOYCE PARKS and GEARLEEN BEASLEY whose husbands are away in Europe on military missions are chatting over old times.

DORIS JONES is training young secretaries at her business school in Goldsboro.

JUDY IVEY and her husband are there. Judy tells me that they have a beautiful farm on which they raise horses. They show them all over the world.

After the reunion I shall go back to my job as a textile manager. The memory of my happy classmates will remain with me. I hope that they will always remain this way.

Last Will and Testament

We the 1965 Senior Class of Seven Springs High School, being of sound mind and strong bodies do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the faculty we leave our sincere gratitude for working with us, helping us to solve our problems and preparing us to face the future.

To the Freshmen we leave this motto, "The road is long and the mountain high, but with the proper tools, it can be achieved with ease."

To the Sophomores we leave the hope that you will use your studies, not as a sideline, but as top precedence.

To the Juniors we leave the pleasures and privileges that are sometimes given to us, as seniors.

We bestow the following individual and valuable personal bequests freely and fully given, which should be used as a continuous reminder of the Seniors' generosity. We assume that these responsibilities will bring prompt and wise results.

- I, LEROY BLIZZARD, will some of me to Glen Rouse.
- I, EDWARD CARMACK, will my ability to play softball in Ag. Class without getting caught to Bill Price.
- I, JIMMY GARRIS, will my school bus to anyone that's crazy enough to try to drive it.
- I, DOUG HILL, will my ability to sleep late and drive to school to Phil Hinson.
- I, TOM KILPATRICK, will my good luck to Dwight Price.
- I, MILTON KORNEGAY, will my ability to graduate in four years to Glenn Grady and Gerald Garris.
- I, GLENN PRICE, will my ability to pass all my subjects in high school to Vicky Lee Price.
- I, LARRY PRICE, will my ability to be in the wrong place at the wrong time doing the wrong thing without getting caught to Bill Price.
- I, MALCOLM PRICE, will my school bus to Wanda Barwick.
- I, EUGENE SASSER, will my ability to pass two histories in one year to Shelton Moore.
- I, GARRY SMITH, will my ability to get through the twelfth grade to Dwight Bennett.
- I, MAJOR STRICKLAND, will my ability to sit in class and keep quiet to Gerald Garris.
- I, GEARLEEN GRADY BEASLEY, will my school books to anyone who wants them in hopes that they won't have the trouble I did.
- I, BECKY CARMACK, will my ability to laugh in a crowd and be "unnoticed" to Mr. Creel.
- I, LINDA DALY, will my school bus to Barbara Ann Daly.
- I, EDNA GAY GARRIS, will my ability to graduate to Gilbert Garris.
- I, JENNY SUE GRADY, will my ability to behave in the twelfth grade and still have a good time to Jane Grady.
- I, MARY WALTON GRADY, will my good times in high school to my sister, Lynette.
- I, KITSIE HARDY, will all my good times playing basketball to Lynette Grady.
- I, JUDY IVEY, will my luck to anyone that can handle it.
- I, DORIS JONES, will my cheerleading outfit to any girl who wants it, so long as she doesn't wait until she's a senior to use it.
- I, MARY MARTIN, will my good times in high school to Edith Price.
- I, JOYCE PARKS, will my ability to get along with other people to Betty Parks.
- I, JACKIE PRICE, will my ability to type to anyone who needs it.
- I, JEANNE PRICE, will all the good times I've had in high school to Diané Smith.
- I, PAMELA PRICE, will all my good times on the basketball court to Sandy Raiford.
- I, PANSY PRICE, will my ability to go places, have fun, and be heard to Polly Price.
- I, TRUDY PRICE, will my ability not to giggle all the time to Kay Lynch.
- I, EDNA WHITMAN, will my ability to sleep late and to get to school on time to Douglas, my brother, because he needs it.
- I, J. B. PRICE, will my ability to make good grades in U.S. History to Gilbert Garris.
- I, TOMMY KORNEGAY, will my good times in high school to my brother, Arthur.
- I, LINDA CARTER, will my books to anybody that wants them.
- I, JERRY CARTER, will my ability to keep quiet in class to Wayne Sutton.
- I, SIDNEY PHILLIPS, will my position on the basketball team to Billy Adams.

This document is signed and sealed by the members of the Senior Class.

A d v e r t i s e m e n t s

You and your family are to be congratulated for reaching this plateau - high school graduation. Education enables you to aggressively compete with others. Americans believe "a man cannot leave a better legacy to the world than a well-educated family." This is as it should be, for education plays a predominant role in the American way of life. It advances free enterprise; it breeds desire in the individual to acquire new skills for self-improvement. Thus, education helps advance our way of life - a life which is the envy of the world, and also the hope of the world.

As life broadens, so does the need for more education. Do not end your learning process now. Continue to prepare yourself so you can help maintain the American way of life.
